Financial Planning and Consolidation

Unify your financial planning and consolidation

Ready to break down the siloes between actuals and plans? Many finance teams struggle with disconnected consolidation and planning processes, leading to delayed cycles, inconsistent reporting, and misalignment between actuals, forecasts, and plans.

Without connecting these critical processes, data discrepancies, compliance risks, and inefficiencies pile up. It's time for a smarter, end-to-end solution that finance can own and maintain themselves — one that supports your unique business needs instead of limiting them.

There's a better way to plan, record, and report

Connect your consolidation and planning processes. Only Anaplan delivers purpose-built applications for both financial planning and consolidation delivered via seamless UX/UI for a unified user experience. Our financial planning and consolidation solutions deliver real-time alignment, improved accuracy, and greater agility so you can pivot under pressure and ensure financial performance excellence in an ever-evolving business environment.

Key benefits

Boost agility: Instantly assess the impact of changes on consolidated results with dynamic scenario planning. Finance teams can fully own and manage their models, unlike other solutions that require IT or third-party support.

Improve accuracy and real-time alignment: Ensure forecasts and budgets reflect the latest consolidated actuals for more informed decision-making. Our customers have reported up to a 20% improvement in forecast accuracy.

Minimize risk and increase transparency: Maintain a single source of truth to reduce reconciliation errors and enable a full audit trail.

Increase finance team efficiency by up to 40%: Free your finance teams from manual tasks so they can focus on strategic insights that optimize decision-making and drive growth.

Cut consolidation and reporting time by up to 90%: Eliminate manual, error-prone work and increase automation and accuracy across the consolidation and reporting process.

Accelerate time to value: Get best practices, calculations, and templates out-of-the-box that are backed by Anaplan's unparalleled, scalable platform, embedded with a common data model and purpose-built services, to deliver value fast.

Turn insights into action with AI: Use explainable AI-driven finance applications to analyze data faster, build trust in results, and connect insights into every decision.
